The Dedication of

The '56 Hornet

goes to...

VIRGINIA FRAZIER

The yearbook staff takes great pleasure in dedicating this year's Hornet to Mrs. Virginia Frazier. Mrs. Frazier has always made every effort to see that we have done our best in our activities as well as class work. In order to accomplish this she has devoted many long hours after school and at home, working with the yearbook, the school paper, and promoting scholarship in her classes. In addition to the above she also acts as sponsor of the senior class and directs the senior play.

By this dedication we hope to indicate, in some small fashion, our appreciation for one who works so unselfishly in our behalf.

Thanks again.
The Staff.

MRS. PARRISH

The Hornet's Award of Devotion Goes to Ida Elizabeth Parrish

Our Award of Devotion

The staff of the HORNET had no difficulty in selecting the recipient of the HORNET'S Award of Devotion. The unanimous decision, without hesitation or discussion, was that no words or awards could fully express to Mrs. Ida Elizabeth Parrish, teacher of the eighth grade, our devotion.

If ever a teacher's life exemplified the words of the Scriptures: "Who shall find a virtuous woman, for her price is far above rubies," the life of Ida Elizabeth Parrish does.

Mrs. Parrish, who completes this spring thirty years of teaching, has given twenty-two years of teaching service in Holt County, fourteen of which have been in Craig. The number of students on whom her influence has fallen comes to a staggering total.

Take untold patience, mix it with an abundance of love, add a keen intellect, a zest for living, a dry humor, season all with a caustic wit, and you have Mrs. Parrish--who through the years has been our friend when we needed a friend; our mother-confessor when we needed to sob out some little story of heartbreak or distress; our critic, praising or correcting as we needed it; our judge, stern or lenient as befitted the case on trial; our guide, leading us to richer experiences when we thought she was following us; our TEACHER, to whom we are devoted, Mrs. Parrish.

In Our Book of Memories:

They Live Yet.

TO ALL PARENTS

"I'll lend you for a little while a child of mine," He said.
"For you to love the while he lives
and mourn for when he's dead.

It may be six or seven years or twenty-two or three,
But will you, till I call him back,
take care of him for me?"

I featured I heard them say, "Dear
Lord, Thy will be done,
For all the blessings he will bring the risk of grief we'll run.

"We'll shelter him with tenderness and love him while we may,
For all the joy that he will bring forever grateful stay.

"But, should the angels call him much
sooner than we've planned,
We'll bear the bitter grief that comes, and try to understand."

Floyd Gene Jewett

Donna Ruth Biermann

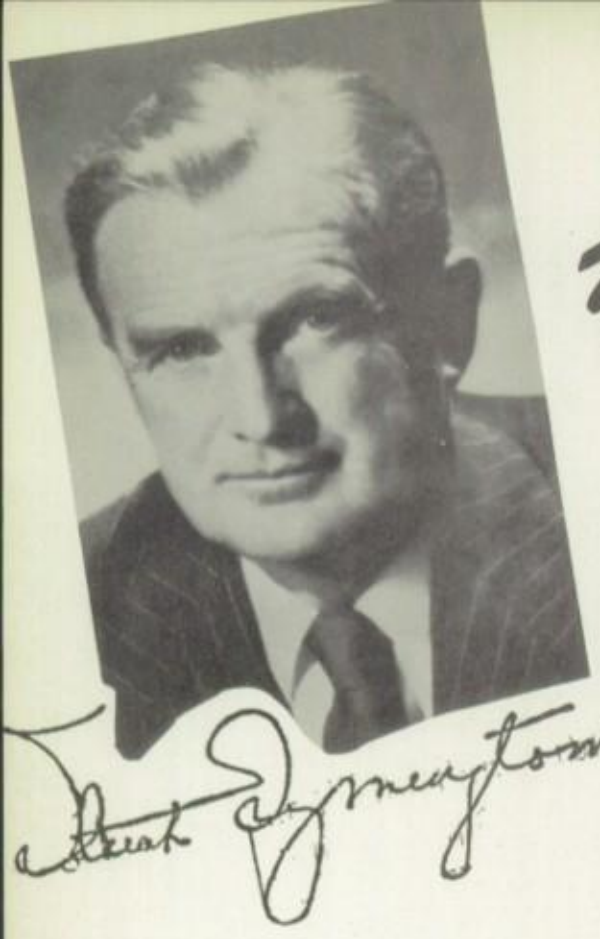
Richard Mitchell

Floyd Gene Jewett passed away February 24, 1955, at Fairfax Hospital after a short illness. He was in the seventh grade of the Craig Grade School. Constant companion of his twin brother, and a happy, responsible student, Floyd Gene left a place no one can fill.

Donna Ruth Biermann, a sunny and sweet child who delighted in helping others, died as the result of a heart operation performed at the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota, on August 25, 1955. Donna Ruth hoped the operation would make her well enough to live like other children. This brave little girl serves as an example to us all to live unselfishly for others.

Richard Mitchell was graduated from Craig High School in May, 1955 and joined the United States Navy immediately. He lost his life in an automobile accident November 5, 1955, as he was on his way to Craig to spend a leave with his family and sweetheart. Richard's love of home, his fun-loving disposition, his ability to make friends, and his patriotism to his country will long be remembered.

Attendants to the Yearbook Queen



Stuart Symington

This year, for the first time, the HORNET has a queen! Our footsteps lead us not to break but to make tradition.

The Honorable Stuart Symington, United States Senator from Missouri, kindly consented to judge the pictures of the girls of the Senior Class. From these pictures, he selected Betty Sue Hinkle as Yearbook Queen; his second choice was Patty Lou Hinkle, and his third choice was Elizabeth Jones.

STUART SYMINGTON
MISSOURI

United States Senate
WASHINGTON, D. C.

January 13, 1956

Dear Mrs. Frazier:

Acknowledging your letter of December 28th, Mrs. Symington and I looked over the pictures of those lovely girls last night.

It was very hard to decide, so to be sure, we enlisted the help of the office, and the decision reached is as follows:

No. 8 - Betty Sue Hinkle

Please tell the girls we hope to see them when we next come to Craig -- and also we look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Stuart Symington

To the Graduates:

It appears that with the completion of each school year, more and more problems have arisen to face the new graduate. The ever present threat of war, the pressure of finding a worthwhile occupation in a world demanding better trained people, the establishment of a home in a fast moving and complex society are but a few of the problems awaiting you.

The instructional staff of this school has done its best to provide you with basic skills with which to deal with the problems of life. The rest is up to you.

May each of you contribute your utmost to God, your country, and yourselves.

F. Bryce Pulley
Superintendent

To the Students:

Though in future years the students of C. H. S. may separate to the far corners of our great nation, it will always be a pleasure to reminisce through the yearbook and recall the "good old days" at Craig High School. The friendships garnered in school days often outlast those of other phases of life. May the good qualities of citizenship which you have expressed in school be reinacted in the role of an adult citizen.

The seniors are sponsored by Virginia Frazier and Darrell Haer. The senior activities include the bingo stand and other carnival concessions, planning and carrying out the initiation of the freshmen, making money for the annual senior trip, producing a senior play, making money to support the senior carnival king and queen candidates.

Without our sponsors and the help of our mothers, we could not successfully engage in these many activities.

The girls talk it over. Shall it be a photographic cover again? Or blue with a Hornet?

Karen asks for advice. "Oh, Mrs. Frazier, I really goofed."

To the staff members of the HORNET comes a reward that can be measured in terms of the satisfaction of seeing a difficult task completed. The girls who work on the yearbook give willingly of what would be "spare" or study time. They frequently remain after school or take work home. But the experience they gain more than compensates for the extra effort.

Timing is important in yearbook work. First, the book must be planned. Then arrangements must be made for photographs. Pages must be planned, laid out, pasted and typed. Deadlines with the publisher must be met, and page continuity and "multiples" kept straight. The students who enjoy the finished yearbook owe the staff a debt of gratitude.

Footsteps that led us to The Grades...

Footsteps--small and scared; new shoes that pinched and squeaked; Like Shakespeare's schoolboy, we came "like a snail unwillingly to school," only to learn that each day brought a new experience, a new joy--reading our first words, playing with a new-found friend, pledging the flag of our country, exploring the world of nature, lifting our voices in song, discovering the rest of the world, learning to play an instrument and participate in a sport.

A B C's of Grade Activities

A is for Ag Meetings, refreshments and all.
Boys pressure Tommy a meeting to call.
B is for Band Mothers, who really are dears.
Bessie Heits has been president for 7 years.
C is for Children with art work to do.
With decorations and trees they got thru.
D is for Director of the grade band.
They played "White Christmas"--got quite a hand.
E is for Elizabeth whose beautiful voice,
Leads us in singing our carols to rejoice.
F is for Fouls made in noon hour games.
This looks rough--you should see the dames.
G is for Gate--of gold and of pearls.
Here the "Littlest Angel" his halo twirls.
H is for High School who sang with a will--
"Upon the Housetop" is their favorite still.
I is for Industrious; they're ladies as well.
Marcia and Lois really are swell.
J is for Joyce and Jack as they pass,
In no hurry to get to 5th hour class.
K is for Kings of the Biblical land.
Proof that program was well planned.
L is for Littlest--Littlest Angel, I mean.
Really quite touching was the manger scene.
M is for Mary who was first prize.
Couldn't be from Mars--not the right size.
N is for Nurse--so jolly and sweet.
Our Mildred Walden just can't be beat.
O is for Oh, such awful sounds
When bass and tenor get out of bounds.
P is for President of our new PTA.
Mrs. Ward is efficiency plus, we'd say.
Q is for Quartet--double at that--
To play carols they didn't play flat.
R is for Ramah with Kenneth at Ag party.
Ronnie dubbed Kenneth an "old smarty".
S is for Social hour enjoyed by all.
1st and 2nd grade Mothers carried the ball.
T is for Teens at FFA dance.
They love to try it--just give 'em a chance.
U is for Unison--that's how they sing--
Christmas Carols made the rafters ring.
V is for Very, Very Good, you know.
Grade school presents a very good show.
W is for Wisemen and shepherds of old--
As grades the Christmas story unfold.
Y is for Yummy Chicken Pie--
Senior Mothers worked hard with nary a sigh.
Z is for Zoom as planes go thru the air--
Mr. Ward in 5th grade--knowledge to share.
